- (6) A qualified insolvency practitioner may be regarded as independent notwithstanding that that person (or the firm of which that person is a partner or employee, or the company of which that person is a director or employee) has previously provided advice to the company as financial advisor or otherwise. However, a qualified insolvency practitioner shall not be regarded as independent if, within a period of 3 years immediately preceding the petition to appoint a restructuring officer being filed with the Court, that person (or the firm of which that person is a partner or employee, or the company of which that person is a director or employee) has acted in relation to the company as its auditor.
- (7) Where the Court orders that a company be wound up at any time after a petition to appoint a restructuring officer has been presented, a qualified insolvency practitioner may be regarded as independent to act as liquidator notwithstanding that that person (or the firm of which that person is a partner or employee, or the company of which that person is a director or employee) has previously been nominated or appointed as a restructuring officer.

- (2) An application to the Court under this Rule shall be served on:

- (a) such creditors (including contingent and prospective creditors) and contributories as the Court thinks fit; and
  - (b) if the company is carrying out a regulated business, the Authority.

- (4) If two or more qualified insolvency practitioners have been appointed as joint restructuring officers, provided that at least one qualified insolvency practitioner remains in office, one or more of them may resign by giving notice to the Court without the need to prepare any report (unless required to do so either by the Court or the continuing restructuring officer). The company may apply to the Court for the appointment of a successor.
- (5) If a qualified insolvency practitioner has been appointed jointly with a foreign practitioner, the foreign practitioner may resign by giving notice to the Court without the need to prepare any report (unless required to do so either by the Court or the continuing restructuring officer). The company may apply to the Court for the appointment of a successor.
- (6) If a restructuring officer, wishing to resign, is acting in the restructuring officer's capacity as a partner or employee of a firm, the Court may make an order that:

- (3) Following the death of a restructuring officer (where that person was acting as sole restructuring officer or jointly with a foreign practitioner), the company shall, within 7 days of the notification of the restructuring officer's death, apply to the Court for an order appointing a new restructuring officer, failing which the firm of which the deceased restructuring officer was a partner or employee may apply to the Court for an order appointing a new restructuring officer.

- (4) If the deceased restructuring officer was appointed jointly with a qualified insolvency practitioner, the survivor shall continue to act as sole restructuring officer unless and until the Court, on the company's application, appoints an additional restructuring officer.

Application for the Removal and Replacement of a Restructuring Officer (O.1A, r.13)

- 13. (1) An application for an order that a restructuring officer be removed and replaced pursuant to section 91F of the Law shall be made by summons in CWR Form No. 16C (referred to in this Rule as a "removal and replacement summons").

8. (1) The general rule is that the costs incurred by a person who successfully presents a creditor's winding up petition under Order 3, Part II or creditor's petition for a supervision order under Order 15, rule 3 should have that person's costs paid out of the assets of the company, such costs to be taxed on an indemnity basis unless agreed with the official liquidator.
- (2) In the case of a contributory's winding up petition under Order 3, Part III, the general rules are that —
- (a) if the Court has directed that the company itself is properly able to participate in the proceeding, the general rule is that the costs of a successful petitioner be paid out of the assets of the company; or
  - (b) if the Court has directed that the winding up petition be treated as an inter partes proceeding between one or more members of the other members or members of the company as respondents, the general rule is that none of the costs should be paid out of the assets of the company and the unsuccessful parties should pay the costs of the successful party, such costs to be taxed on the standard basis unless agreed.
- (2A) An order for security for costs may only be made if the petitioner is a nominal petitioner who has presented the petition for the benefit of another person and who would be unable to pay the costs of the company or other respondent, as the case may be, if ordered to do so.
- (3) In the case of an Authority's petition under Order 3, Part IV, the general rule is that —
- (a) the Authority's costs of successfully presenting a petition should be paid out of the assets of the company, such costs to be taxed on the indemnity basis if not agreed with the official liquidator; or
  - (b) the company's costs of successfully resisting the petition should be paid by the Authority, such costs to be taxed on the indemnity basis if not agreed.
- (4) The Court shall make orders for costs in accordance with these general rules unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional and special circumstances which justify making some other order or no order for costs.

Costs of Sanction Applications (O.24, r.9)

9. (1) This Rule applies to every sanction application under Order 11, including any application for the approval of the official liquidator's remuneration.
- (2) The official liquidator's costs of making a sanction application shall be paid out of the assets of the company unless the Court is satisfied that —
- (a) the application ought not to have been made because the directions sought by the official liquidator were unnecessary and served no useful purpose;
  - (b) the directions sought by the official liquidator were wholly unreasonable; or
  - (c) the official liquidator has misled the Court or otherwise acted improperly in connection with the application.
- (3) The liquidation committee's costs of participating in a sanction application shall be paid out of the assets of the company unless the Court is satisfied that —
- (a) the liquidation committee's participation in the application served no useful purpose or constituted an unreasonable duplication of the costs incurred by the official liquidator;
  - (b) the position adopted by the liquidation committee was wholly unreasonable; or
  - (c) the liquidation committee has misled the Court or otherwise acted improperly in connection with the application
- (4) In the case of a sanction application which is made or opposed by a creditor or contributory, the general rule is that —
- (a) that creditor's or contributory's costs of successfully making or opposing the application should be paid out of the assets of the company, such costs to be taxed on an indemnity basis if not agreed with the official liquidator; and
  - (b) no order for costs should be made against a creditor or contributory whose application or opposition is unsuccessful, unless the Court is satisfied that that creditor's or contributory's position was wholly unreasonable or that creditor or contributory is guilty of having misled the Court or otherwise acting improperly in connection with the application.
- (5) The Court shall make orders for costs in accordance with these general rules unless it is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances and special reasons which justify making some other order or not order for costs.

Costs of Appeals (O.24, r.10)

10. (1) This Rule applies to appeals by contributories under Order 12, rule 4 and appeals by creditors under Order 16, Part III.

- (3) The general rule is that the appellant's costs should follow the event, such that —
  - (a) if the appellant succeeds, the Court shall order that the appellant's costs be paid out of the assets of the company as an expense of the liquidation;
  - (b) if the appellant is unsuccessful, the Court will order the appellant to pay the official liquidator's costs,
  - (c) such costs to be taxed on the standard basis unless agreed.
- (4) In deciding how to exercise its discretion under sub-rule (3) the Court shall have regard to the manner in which the appellant originally sought to prove the appellant's claim (and, in particular, any failure to provide to the official liquidator with the whole of the evidence relied upon in support of the appellant's appeal to the Court) and the reasons why the Court reversed or varied or upheld the official liquidator's decision.
